A terrific storm passed over this county Sunday night fairly flooding the streets and property.

The boys have hauled rock and manure and closed up the break in the Carrick dam and will soon have another fine body of water south of town.

Ike Zeigler, when his new store room is completed, will move his dry goods store in there, using the present room for a grocery department and give the south side a grocery store.

And this week it is a homestead in the south east part of the county in 15-16, which now makes every piece of land in that township deeded or covered by a homestead entry.

In another column the county surveyor gives notice that the farmers in 14-19 are going to have their boundary lines established.

A proper move and what every farmer should do, especially before plowing or running fences.

It was demonstrated this week as he was running lines and found that about 12 acres of splendid wheat was unexpectedly on an adjoining homestead, making a loss to the wheat raiser and a gain to the homesteader.

Stallion & Jack.
A full blooded Clydesdale stallion, bred and raised by Peter Quint, weighs 1800, sure getter. Mother was an imported mare. This stallion is so well known, a description is unnecessary, and can show equal as good colts as any in the county: see Anton Gross' and Arthur Wilde's, and Alex Thompson sold 2 yearling colts for 100 dollars.

The JACK, "Dewey" sired by a pure bred Kentucky Jack "Dixie" which was noted for premiums taken. Well marked with fine head, square build, getter of first class mules.

Both will stand at Robinson's stable in Hays Monday, Tuesday, Friday & Saturday.

A number of the old soldier boys drove out to Peter Gosser's to celebrate his birthday and surprised him as the day hadn't come yet, but they had a good time as they always do at his home.

Some cuss entered Downing's residence during her absence, stole a lot of flowers and carried off the front door key. Downing has had a new lock put on and will gladly give the old lock to the fellow who can show the old key.

Gasolene stove!

I have an excellent Gasolene stove, good as new. Also a Vapor bath closet, for sale cheap. Mrs. Martin ALLEN.
